

CURLING COMEDY

MAR 22 - APR 14

By Kristen Da Silva

Don't miss Canadian Playwright Kristen Da Silva's curling comedy. When Bill and Sandy's marriage split up, so does their curling team. A medical emergency has left the men's team short a player on the day of the big Regional Bonspiel. Bill, Sandy, and their friends must put aside their differences and come together to make a winning foursome.

COMIC ADVENTURE

MAY 10 - JUN 2

Adapted by Margaret Raether

Set sail for laughter as Bertie Wooster revels in life aboard the Vanderley yacht, accompanied, as always, by his peerless valet, Jeeves. When Bertie's pal Crumpet assaults a prince, a madcap case of mistaken identities ensues surely leading to Bertie's doom – or worse, his marriage? Have no fear, Jeeves will sort it out, or will he?

MUSICAL BY DOLLY PARTON

JUNE 28 - AUG 25

Based on the 20th Century Fox Picture originally produced on Broadway by Robert Greenblatt, April 2009

9 to 5 The Musical is based on the seminal 1980 hit movie. This hilarious story of friendship and revenge in the Rolodex era is outrageous. Pushed to the boiling point, three female coworkers concoct a plan to get even with their sexist, egotistical boss. Violet, Judy and Doralee live out their wildest fantasy – giving their boss the boot!

AWARD-WINNING DRAMA

SEP 27 - OCT 20

by Dorothy Dittrich

The Piano Teacher is a Governor General's Award-winning play about loss, love, friendship, and the healing power of music. When classical pianist Erin experiences a devastating family tragedy, she finds herself unable to play music or even touch a piano. Navigating through the traumatic loss of the life she knew, she meets an unconventional piano teacher, Elaine, who gives her new hope for the future.

HOLIDAY ROMANCE

NOV 22 - DEC 22

By Lauren Gunderson and Margot Melcon

A sequel to Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice set at Christmas two years after the novel ends, MISS BENNET continues the story, only this time with bookish middle-sister Mary as its unlikely heroine. When the family gathers for Christmas at Pemberley, an unexpected guest sparks Mary's hopes for independence, an intellectual match, and possibly even love.
